RANDOLPH

Will Cushman Died Tuesday Night After Period of Ill Health.

The death of Will Cushman occurred on Tuesday night after a long period of ill health, the result of heart trouble and complications. Mr. Cushman had been failing in strength for a long time, and in the last few weeks had gone down rapidly. For years he had conducted a barber shop in town, and as long as his strength continued he kept the work up, but later he had to give it up. He is survived by his wife, who has been faithful in her ministrations to him in his weakness.

Mrs. Charles Wood went to Burlington this week to attend the funeral of Charles Fleury, who was killed in an automobile accident. Mr. Fleury having been the nephew of Mrs. Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones of Burlington and Donovan Jones of Newbury were the over-Sunday guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Jones, of this place.

The village meeting was attended by a small number on Tuesday night, it having been an adjourned meeting. The committee appointed to investigate the cost of installing a Gamewell fire alarm system gave the report, and after much discussion, it was voted to establish an alarm system at the expense not to exceed $2,000. To this could be added later, if it proves satisfactory, other appliances which would in the end make the system very satisfactory. It is understood that it is to be operated from the telephone office, although the particulars are not definitely known. Three hundred dollars were also voted for eight band concerts to be given this season.

Mrs. Harry Larose and two children went to her home in Berlin for a few days' stay, on Wednesday.
